Editorial

The primary objective of BUIITEMS is to serve the nation by providing competent human resource. In this regard, BUIITEMS growth has been phenomenal in the recent years which is reflected by its popularity and successive increase in the number of applicants every year for its degree programs. The architects of this university “BUIITEMS family” as we identify them, include, teachers, students and management led by the Vice Chancellor, who work as a team to build the environment suitable for youth and their education with difference.

Education at BUIITEMS is designed to serve the purpose of a free nation which is a shift from providing training for the supply of subordinates to serve the rulers in the legacy of colonial times. BUIITEMS design of education is to build leadership to serve free and independent nation, Pakistan. At BUIITEMS we do not impart inert knowledge, we emphasize on the application of knowledge with balance of utility, working for the betterment of the economy as well as the social well being of the community at large through our graduates, entrepreneurs and professionals.

Competence and expertise in all fields of studies is needed for national development. A university is expected to provide opportunities to faculty and students to progress in line with advances made in the knowledge components related to their fields of interests. Innovative educational ventures and research for the generation of new knowledge are undertaken mandatorily as a requirement for degrees. As a result significant research constitutes the hall-mark of the academic process at BUIITEMS. The University has adopted strict criteria for the selection of faculty and encourages them to improve their academic qualifications through university faculty development program as well as through other funding proposals.

In addition, the University has always stepped forward to play an effective role in ameliorating the sufferings of the masses afflicted by calamities. BUIITEMS has always been on the forefront at times of national exigencies, be it the havoc caused by the earth-quakes or the ravishing floods in the country. The recent flux of IDP's from North Waziristan to Khyber Pakhtoonkhwa similarly prompted BUIITEMS to come up to expectations to undertake the relief efforts including the monetary support by the University management, staff and students. BUIITEMS stands committed to fulfill its corporate social obligations as a national institution.
